

Dinghy Cruising Association

1. Name and Object

1.1 The name of the Association is the Dinghy Cruising Association. The Association is divided into local groups whose members sail in the same area. The burgee of the Association is blue with a yellow fly and a white triangle on the blue.

1.2 The object for which the Association is formed is to promote and encourage all forms of cruising in dinghies and similar small craft individually or in company at informal meets organised by members.

2. Membership

2.1 Anyone, whether the owner of a boat or not, who is interested in dinghy cruising is eligible as a candidate for membership. Membership of the Association shall be open to anyone interested in the sport on application regardless of sex, age, disability, ethnicity, nationality, sexual orientation, religion or other beliefs.

2.2 Honorary membership of the Association may be conferred for such periods as thought fit by members at any General Meeting.

2.3 Prospective members who submit their name and address and other particulars to the Membership Secretary, as well as the necessary subscription, will be admitted to the Association.

2.4 Every member undertakes to comply with these rules and any refusal or neglect to do so or any other conduct which, in the opinion of the General Committee, is either unworthy of a member or otherwise injurious to the interests of the Association shall render the member concerned liable to expulsion by the General Committee provided that, before expelling anyone, the General Committee shall ask them for an explanation and give them opportunity to defend themselves. The vote on an expulsion shall be by ballot and shall only be carried if not less than three fifths of the members of the General Committee vote in favour of the expulsion.

3. Subscription

3.1 The subscription rate and the dates on which subscriptions are due shall be set by the General Committee and confirmed by a vote at the Annual General Meeting.

3.2 Any member who has not paid the subscription by the due date may be removed from the list of members.

4. Non-distribution to members

4.1 All surplus income or profits are to be reinvested in the Association. No surpluses or assets will be distributed to members or third parties except for small donations to registered charities active within our sport such as the RNLI.

5. Officers

5.1 The officers of the Association shall be:

President
National Secretary
Membership Secretary
Treasurer
Editor of the Journal
Librarian
PRO
Regional Group Secretaries

– and any other official posts created by the General Committee, that are subsequently put to the vote of the membership at the Annual General Meeting, and to which a member is voted into post in the usual way.

5.2 Officers shall be proposed and seconded at the Annual General Meeting and, excepting the Group Secretaries, shall be elected by a show of hands.

5.3 If the number of candidates duly proposed exceeds the number of vacancies to be filled, the election shall be by ballot.

5.4 The Officers shall hold office until the conclusion of the next Annual General Meeting and shall be eligible for re-election.

5.5 Officers wishing not to continue in post for the following year should, if possible, inform the President well in advance of the next AGM, so that the vacant post can be advertised.

5.6 The Treasurer shall keep a strict account of all monies received and disbursed on the Association's account and, when so requested, submit the same to any meeting of the General Committee. The Treasurer shall present an account for the year at the Annual General Meeting which shall be published in the bulletin.

6. Committee

6.1 The General Committee shall consist of the Officers of the Association, the President being the chair and the quorum being three.

6.2 The management of the Association and the election of new members shall be under the exclusive control of the General Committee excepting only the making and alteration of rules. The General Committee only are to enter into any agreement or arrangement with any other sailing Association or Club. The General Committee shall be sole authority of the interpretation of the rules.

6.3 Each Local Group shall be responsible for its own organisation within the framework of these rules and shall be represented by a Group Secretary.

6.4 The General Committee may co-opt a member to fill a casual vacancy caused by death or resignation.

7. Honorary Auditor

7.1 At the Annual General Meeting in each year a member shall be appointed as Hon. Auditor whose duty it shall be to audit the accounts of the Association for the then current year.

8. General Meetings

8.1 An Annual General Meeting shall be held at some place to be named and on some day to be fixed by the General Committee. Notice of the date of such meeting and its agenda shall be delivered to the membership at least 14 days before.

8.2 No business shall be voted on at the meeting unless included in the Agenda.

8.3 The General Committee may, on giving fourteen days notice, call a general meeting of the Association for any specific business the nature of which shall be stated in the summons convening the meeting, and the discussion at such meeting shall be confined to that business only.

8.4 The General Committee shall also call a general meeting on the written request of twelve members.

8.5 At any general meeting of the Association each member shall have one vote. In case of an equality of votes, the chair shall have a second or casting vote.

9. New rules, amendments and alterations

9.1 Alterations and additions to the rules shall only be carried out at a general meeting called by the General Committee.

9.2 Notice of any alteration or addition to the rules intended to be proposed by a member of the association shall be given to the President in writing at least one month before any general meeting at which the same is to be brought forward, and full particulars of any such alterations or additions shall be set out in the notice convening the meeting.

9.3 All such proposed alterations or additions and any amendments to them which may be proposed and seconded shall be put to the vote of the meeting, and provided that on a show of hands or if demanded on a poll, a majority of two thirds of the votes of those members present and entitled to vote shall be cast in favour of any proposed alterations, additions or amendments then the same shall be deemed to be carried.

10. Application of assets on dissolution.

10.1 Upon dissolution of the Association any remaining assets shall be given or transferred to another registered Community Amateur Sports Club, a registered charity or the sport's governing body for use by them in related community sports.
